

2026 RECIPIENTS

Liam Barrera

For being a natural leader of his team, never missing a game or practice, and always showing positivity. His passion for the game of basketball is obvious from the way he carries himself on the court.

Jace Beall

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Liam Beall

For demonstrating passion, respect, and commitment to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Colton Boley

For displaying a strong work ethic, positive attitude toward coaches and teammates, and having the ability to lift up others around him. He has shown tremendous growth throughout the season and embodies the very qualities that made Will Smith so exceptional.

Jaelik Brooks

For being a driven and highly motivated young man who sets goals for himself and works tirelessly to achieve them. He is a natural leader who leads by example through his work ethic, persistence, and positive attitude.

Andrew Broome

For displaying drive and perseverance to excel both on and off the court. He works collaboratively with his peers and takes full ownership of his actions. He leads by example and uplifts his team with his positive energy.

Benjamin Broome

For being a great teammate who displays impressive effort and drive during practices and games. He has excellent communication skills that make him a natural leader and asset to his team.

Colton Buckler

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Emir Castain

For demonstrating passion, a strong work ethic, and coachability that extends beyond the basketball court. Emir is consistent and fully committed to lifting up teammates every step of the way.

Shanii Chaney

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Tristin Chase

For displaying passion, a strong work effort, and coachability that extends beyond the basketball court. Tristin's consistency and commitment to lifting up teammates has been impressive.

Mai'Kenzie Coleman

For being a dedicated team member who works hard and helps others. She was a key reason for her team being undefeated and winning the championship last year. She demonstrates commitment, discipline, and continued growth as an athlete.

Leighton Cook

For displaying incredible growth as a player over the years and consistently taking on more of a leadership role each season. As an 8th grader, Leighton is viewed as the captain of the team. His positivity and willingness to always support his teammates is outstanding.

Savannah Cusic

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Austin Evans

For displaying dedication on the court and being a natural leader who rallies the team. He is a tenacious defender and aggressive rebounder who learns the game quickly and has a tireless work ethic.

Joshua Hall

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Tyler Johnson

For giving his full effort every time he steps on the court and displaying quiet leadership through his passion for the game. He has never missed a game or practice and is always committed to his team.

Patrick Killion

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Payton Kurtz

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Emersyn Lee

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Gavin Lewis

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Kailonna Mason

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Nevaeh Neal

For being a dedicated, hardworking, and respectful young leader who consistently demonstrates excellence both on and off the court. She encourages teammates, communicates effectively, and stays focused even during challenging moments.

Jonathan Pope

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Tucker Redmond

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Henry Rueter

For being a dependable, selfless player who always gives 110% effort on the court, season after season. He finds what his specialty is on the court and uses this strength to help make the team successful.

Danny Vereen III

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Christopher Watters Jr.

For demonstrating exceptional teamwork by fostering collaboration, trust, and mutual respect among peers. Christopher prioritizes shared goals over personal recognition and supports teammates whenever needed.

Aubrie Wilkes

For displaying sportsmanship, leadership, and dedication to the game of basketball while playing for St. Mary's County Recreation and Parks Basketball League.

Kingston Williams

For acting with integrity, humility, and fairness in every situation, even when no one is watching. Kingston displays a deep sense of responsibility and kindness, creating an environment where others feel valued and motivated.