THE ONLY REVOLUTIONARY WAR BATTLE IN MARYLAND (ST. GEORGE ISLAND)

Wednesday, August 26, 2026, from 6:00 - 7:30 p.m.
Commissioners Meeting Room in the Chesapeake Building
41770 Baldrige St., Leonardtown

In July 1776, the fate of the recently declared American Independence was anything but certain. In the brackish waters off St. Mary's County, a British flotilla and a royal governor arrived – sending shockwaves through the state.

Join Preservation Maryland President & CEO Nicholas Redding to learn about Maryland's only Revolutionary War Battle, its impact, and the often-overlooked tale of the Battle of St. George Island.

Hosted by the Historic Preservation Commission
