Valley Lee Man Sentenced to Prison for Four Attempted Murders

LEONARDTOWN, MD (June 15, 2026) – State's Attorney Jaymi Sterling announced today that Cameron David-Louis Curtis, 23, of Valley Lee, Maryland, was sentenced to 90 years in prison with 30 years of active incarceration for his role in the 2025 attempted murders of four St. Mary's County men.

Curtis was convicted by a St. Mary's County jury of two counts of attempted first-degree murder, two counts of attempted second-degree murder, four counts of use of a firearm in the commission of a crime of violence, and one count of handgun in vehicle in November 2025 following a six-day trial.

"This case involved an extraordinary level of danger that unfolded across the county and put countless innocent members of our community at risk," said State's Attorney Jaymi Sterling. "Our office remains committed to aggressively prosecuting violent offenders and holding accountable those who threaten public safety."

Senior Assistant State's Attorney Alena Mosier prosecuted the case on behalf of the citizens of St. Mary's County.

Detective Warren Forinash of the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office was the lead investigator.

The Honorable Amy Lorenzini presided over the case.
