

Board Met

Feb. 26th. 1935.

Present F. Harvey Bailey
Clarence D. Bradburn
Wm. P. Wise.

Minutes last meeting read and adopted.

Captain Walter Cheseldine, Messrs Pinkney Blackstone , and E.T Oliver addressed the Board, asking that the road through River Springs leading to Oliver's Store, be taken over as county road.

The Board agreed to recommend the improvement of this road after deed and right of way has been prepared.

Mr. W. C. Freeman requested the Board to take over as a county road the road leading to St. Clements Shores.

Mr. R. Bascom Broun Jr. and Stewart Bennett, petitioned the Board to recommend the improvement of road , beginning at the intersection of State Road and leading to Foxwell's Point.

The Board promised to consider both of these requests in due course.

The Board unanimously voted to join the Western Maryland County Commissioners Association, and authorized the payment of annual dues of $10.00 to Paul M. Coughlan, Treasurer of said association. Passed and paid following accounts.
