

May 12, 1959

Commissioners and their attorney met in regular session today.

Mrs. Gill-Pres. Homemakers' Club called about roads at St. Clements Shores very dusty cannot keep windows or doors open-would like something on roads to lay the dust. Must property owners pay for this?

Supervisor of Assessments and Tax Assessor met with the Board and advised that the name of Wm. Lawrence of Bushwood was at top of the list for Assessor's Aide which was sent from the State Tax Commission. Each applicant was interviewed and came out 1- Wm. Lawrence- 2, Clarence Bell and 3 Upton Thompson. Mr. Lawrence was notified of his appointment which will be effective June 16th

No reply to letter sent to Annie C. Holton, Irene Howard 6237 Elsworth St Penna 43, Phila-Pa as to ownership of lot in 7D which is being used for Public Dump and which Madeline Collins Miles says she should receive money for rent. Mr. Wm. F. Herbert informed the Board as to the party paying taxes on the land.

Cleve Bailey asked that ditch be opened as it has closed the run- JDBond will see about this.

Newmeyer Road- 4 houses Mr. Hodges will inspect road and report. Plans show the old road goes by Mr. Woodall's if road goes thru woods County will not accept same. But if road goes thru land of Vanward or Arthur Lawrence they will accept it - All 3 Comms. will go to inspect the road., and decide what can be done.

Commissioners adjourned at 3 pm
