St. Mary's County Government Announces January 6 Closure
Winter Storm Warning in Effect Through January 7

LEONARDTOWN, MD – St. Mary's County, Maryland is under a Winter Storm Warning beginning at 6 p.m. tonight and continuing through the morning of Tuesday, January 7, 2025. Snowfall totals for St. Mary's County are expected between 8–12 inches. Additional ice accumulation is possible, and temperatures will remain below freezing. Peak snowfall is expected from 2 a.m. through noon on Monday, January 6, 2025. Impacts to the morning and evening commute are expected.

Due to anticipated inclement weather, St. Mary's County Government (SMCG) administrative offices will be closed Monday, January 6, 2025. This closure also includes:

- The Senior Activity Centers (Garvey, Loffler & Northern) with no home-delivered meals
- Department of Recreation & Parks programs, facilities, museums, and golf course
- The St. Mary's Transit System (STS)
- The Convenience Centers and the St. Andrews Landfill
- The St. Mary's County Animal Adoption & Resources Center
- The St. Mary's County Health Department
- St. Mary's County Libraries (Charlotte Hall, Leonardtown & Lexington Park)
- Circuit and District Courts
