St. Mary's County Launches Agriculture & Seafood Brand to Support Local Producers

LEONARDTOWN, MD – The Commissioners of St. Mary's County are proud to announce the continued implementation of the Department of Economic Development's Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy with the launch of the St. Mary's County Agriculture and Seafood Brand—a new initiative to showcase and promote locally produced agriculture, seafood, and forestry products.

“This brand is more than just a logo—it’s a promise of authenticity and a celebration of our local businesses,” said Chris Kaselemis, Director of the Department of Economic Development. “By creating a recognizable identity for St. Mary’s County’s agriculture and seafood products, we hope to help local farmers, watermen, and foresters stand out in competitive markets, highlighting the exceptional quality of our locally produced products and experiences.”

Beyond increasing visibility, the brand supports broader economic growth by attracting investment and expanding opportunities for value-added enterprises. This effort also aims to educate and engage residents, and businesses, highlighting the importance of our working lands and waters.
