Commissioners of St. Mary's County Kick Off FY2027 Budget Process with First Budget Work Session on Nov. 18

LEONARDTOWN, MD – The Commissioners of St. Mary's County (CSMC) will host their first Budget Work Session (BWS) for fiscal year (FY) 2027 on Tuesday, November 18, 2025, at 1:30 p.m. in the CSMC Meeting Room, located on the 1st floor of the Chesapeake Building at 41770 Baldrige Street in Leonardtown.

The CSMC oversee the annual budget process for St. Mary's County Government (SMCG), which includes multiple budget work sessions that are open to the public and available for online viewing, as well as a Budget Public Hearing, providing ample opportunity for community engagement.

Residents are encouraged to visit: www.stmaryscountymd.gov/Budget to view the budget timeline and meeting schedule, watch budget meeting videos, and learn how to provide feedback.

“The budget process is one of the most important responsibilities of county government,” said Commissioner President, Randy Guy. “We encourage residents to follow along, attend sessions, and provide feedback as we work together to shape the priorities for our community.”

Meetings are available to the public in multiple ways:

- Attend in person (Chesapeake Building; 41770 Baldrige Street, Leonardtown, MD)
- Watch live on SMCG TV Channel 95; view the schedule: www.stmaryscountymd.gov/95
- Stream live or view later on-demand at: www.youtube.com/@StMarysCoGov

The budget includes revenue, reserve, and tax information, as well as expenditures for county departments, state agencies, elected officials, non-profits, and more. Once finalized, the budget guides SMCG decisions for the coming fiscal year and lays the groundwork for years to come.
