St. Mary's County Museums Announce Water Taxi Will End Service for Season on Oct. 13, Resume in March 2027

LEONARDTOWN, MD – St. Mary's County Government's Museum Division has announced that the water taxi service offered at St. Clement's Island Museum will cease operations for the season on October 13, 2026, and will resume service in March 2027. The vessel is required to undergo further upgrades and certifications as mandated by the U.S. Coast Guard.

The water taxi, which provides rides for visitors from St. Clement's Island Museum to St. Clements Island State Park, will be cruising daily, 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., until the final day of the season.

It is encouraged that you call 301-769-2222 before visiting to check water taxi operation and current restrictions as extenuating circumstances and last-minute extreme weather conditions can prevent cruising.

Our museums offer amazing programs and events throughout the year! Stay up to date by following them on Facebook at:

About the St. Mary's County Museum Division

The St. Mary's County Museum Division was established by the Commissioners of St. Mary's County to collect, preserve, research, and interpret the historic sites and artifacts which illustrate the natural and cultural histories of St. Mary's County and the Potomac River. These sites include St. Clement's Island Museum, Piney Point Lighthouse Museum, the Old Jail Museum, and the Drayden African American Schoolhouse. With this as its charter, the Museum Division serves as a resource, liaison and community advocate for all St. Mary's County public and private cultural assets.
