St. Mary's County Government Announces Operational Changes Due to Leonardtown Water Service Disruption

LEONARDTOWN, MD – November 17, 2026 – St. Mary's County Government (SMCG) advises residents of temporary facility closures and service changes today, Tuesday, Nov. 17, due to a water service disruption affecting portions of Leonardtown.

The Town of Leonardtown has identified a water leak, and crews are working to isolate the affected area and restore service. The following operational updates are in effect for Tuesday, Nov. 17:

- St. Mary's County Government Offices: Opening on time and operating on their regular schedules.
- Leonardtown Library: Opening at noon.
- Garvey Senior Activity Center: Closed for the day.
- Department of Aging & Human Services: Congregate meal services are canceled, and home-delivered meal services are canceled countywide for the day.
- St. Mary's County Public Schools: Walter Francis Duke Elementary School and Leonardtown Elementary School are closed for the day.

County officials continue to coordinate with the Town of Leonardtown and other community partners to monitor the situation and minimize disruptions to public services.

The Town is actively working to restore water service to affected areas. Additional updates will be shared as information becomes available.
